

IMAGINE PEACE

Imagine peace as the light of the world
A thing you should believe in no matter who you are

Imagine peace when you see people working together
All races, interacting without conflict

Imagine peace when rivalry ends
Enemies becoming friends
People forgiving one another for mistakes

Imagine peace as something that gave slaves hope
To know that when they were set free
Peace for African-American people's rights would be official

Imagine peace when you see someone smile
Their worries and fears perhaps forgotten
Over a peaceful calming thought

Imagine peace as sweet as apple blossoms
And as delicious as chocolate cake

Imagine peace when the wars come to an end
No more valuable lives lost
No more fighting for the country's sake
For we grieve for those who gave their lives for our freedom
But without them, peace would be miles away
Just out of reach if you tried to grasp it

Peace is the key to a perfect life
But it is not easy to achieve
If you want it, go get it
Just like Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. did

But most of all peace is...
A feeling in your heart
When all is well in the world
You know when you feel it
Because your heart swells with happiness
